

GIACOMO DERIU

He is born in Oristano, Sardinia. Currently lives and works between Bologna and Berlin.

He holds a degree in arts, received in 2002 from "Accademia di Belle Arti di Bologna", where he has studied painting and graphic.

Since 1998 he works as a freelance graphic designer, specialized in 3d graphic, postproduction and interactive application programming. During the same period he has made practice within the electronic and mechanic field.

These experiences led him to the decision of applying the knowledge acquired, to his artistic researches. Right in this field, because of the many possibilities given by the digital technology, he started developing a lot of artworks, like interactive visual applications and installations, videos and printed graphics.

In 2008, won the "Premio Celeste" (a prestigious competition that promotes contemporary art in Italy) with the interactive installation "Presente del Verbo Essere," realized in collaboration with Lara Mezzapelle.

He is now developing with the collaboration of Lara Mezzapelle a personal exposition in Rome and a project for the Istanbul 's biennale of Arts.
