

Zuzana MANTEL

Zuzana Mantel - Mlynarova, born in 1972 Czechoslovak Republic.

During my studies of Product Design at Technical University in Košice, Slovakia I became interested oil painting and decided to travel to several countries - looking to soak up different cultures and techniques, learn from old masters as El Greco, Leonardo da Vinci, Vincent Van Gogh, Momet, Manet, Turner and other modern artists, where I acquired much of technique and spirit as an artist. Mine works are based on these modern version of the ancient craft inspired by designs from natural and human forms, to catch up light, color and vibration.

In year 1997 I finished study on department of design Technical University in Košice /Slovakia/.

Six years of study was oriented on product and graphic design, visual communication with excellent teachers as: J. Hascak, Jenik, A. Szentpetery.

In year 1999 I migrate to Israel. I live there for several years with mine family. In the end of year 2005 I come back to Europe. At the present time I live in Prague - Czech Republic.

I'm painting light and color, emotion and vibration. I want to catch magic moments of our life.

I'm interested in philosophy, numerology, symbolism, life-philosophy, religion and culture.

I seek for the best form mine background. Slovakia give to me emotions and knowledge, England free mine mind, Israel give me light and strength and in the Czech I found love, passion and family

My creation is direct at natural and human forms. I create with love.

My works are in private and public collections in Japan, Lebanon, Spain, Israel, Czech Republic, Mexico, USA, India, England, Canada, Italy, Holland and Slovakia.
