Artist from the heart.

I'm a painter and professional photographer who likes to show my point of view in an artistic and original way.

Since I was a little girl, I've tried to communicate and share my thoughts and feelings through art.

I love to capture those moments in time knowing that they will never happen again, at least not in the same way....

Join me in this unique journey to visit new places, meet new people, learn new techniques and enjoy every second of this amazing path that we call "LIFE".

You can enjoy some of my latest work in the following pages.
